Notes

- Arrange the items on your bibliography alphabetically by author, books, articles, etc.
- Double-space all lines.
- Indent the second and following lines 5 spaces (or one half inch).
- If no author is given, start with the title.
- Abbreviate the names of all months except May, June, and July.
- If the paging of a magazine or newspaper article is continued elsewhere in the issue, include only the first page followed by a plus sign (ex. 25+).

- If the encyclopedia does not arrange its articles alphabetically, treat the encyclopedia article as if it were a book article. Specific volume and page numbers are cited in the text, not in the list of references.
- Websites: include the title of the web page, the name of the entire web site, the organization that posted it (this may be the same as the name of the website). Also include the full date the page was created or last updated (day, month, year if available) and the date you looked at it.
- Internet Magazine Articles: Include:
 - The name of the database (underlined) and the company that created it and its home webpage;
 - The full date of the article (day, month, year if available) and the date you looked at it;
 - If you are citing a journal instead of a magazine, include the volume (and issue number) and date as shown under the Journal Style above.
 - The library or other organization (and its location) that provided you with access to the database.
 - As for page numbers, different databases will provide different information. Include the range of pages (ex. 25-28.); or the starting page followed by a hyphen, a blank space, and a period (ex. 64- .); or the total number of pages or paragraphs (ex. 12 pp. or 33 pars.). If no page information is given, then leave it out.
- The rules concerning a title within a title are not displayed here for purposes of clarity. See the printed version of the manual for details.
- For documents and situations not listed here, see the printed version of the manual.

NOTE: If you have a San Antonio Public Library card you are allowed home access to the library's databases.

The Library offers access to over 70 full-text databases. These databases are available 24 hours a day/seven days a week – all that is needed is a free San Antonio Public Library card. View a list of databases at http://www.sat.lib.tx.us/webcatalog/online_dbs.asp

Instructions:

- Go to <http://www.sanantonio.gov/library/> and click on Databases (located under Electronic Resources).
- Locate a title from the Subject category list or alphabetical list.
- Click on a database title.
- Enter your library card number (14 digits with no spaces) and click on Enter
- Enter your last name and click on Enter
